New York,

Dear Madam:

Here is a remarkable offer.

"The Trained Nurse and Hospital Review" is the pioneer nursing magazine of America. It started in 1888, and remains today the leading non-partisan nursing magazine in this country.

"The Trained Nurse and Hospital Review" is a magazine of practical nursing and progress--not an organ. It is the journal for the nurse who desires open-minded, free discussion of all nursing questions, who expects to keep abreast of the times in regard to practical methods in the nursing field--the magazine with the courage of its convictions, which numbers among its contributors the cleverest writers in the nursing world--just the magazine which an aggressive, intelligent nurse will enjoy and profit by, month by month.

It interests and benefits every class of nurse,--the nurse in training, the graduate nurse, and the nurse in an executive position. It is of great value to the nurse in Social Service work. Thousands have testified that it is the most useful, helpful nursing magazine printed. It actually helps you make your living.

You are not a subscriber, and in order to get you to subscribe, we will make you the following offer: The regular price of "The Trained Nurse" is $2, BUT IF WE GET YOUR TRIAL SUBSCRIPTION ANY TIME WITHIN THE NEXT THIRTY DAYS, WE WILL GIVE YOU EIGHT NUMBERS FOR $1.

Send for free sample copy.

Very truly yours,

LAKESIDE PUBLISHING COMPANY.
