

The following criteria for hiring and rehiring faculty for the Women's Studies Program have been recommended by the Personnel Committee to the Women's Studies Board. The Women's Studies Board would like feedback from the students. Please indicate any additional suggestions you might have and either return to your instructor or to the Women's Studies office at 720 Lindo Paseo by Wednesday, March 24.

1. Involvement in the Women's Movement

2. Cooperation:

Faculty of the Women's Studies Program must be willing to be responsible to the representative process that has been established by the general membership of the WSP.

3. Willingness to work:

Faculty women must be willing to work cooperatively and collectively with other faculty and staff and students of the Women's Studies Board in the day-to-day operations of the Women's Studies Program.

① Academic criteria:

In choosing a teacher for a specific course our program is offering, we consider her research or publication in the area of women and her degree of knowledge in the particular field.

② Criteria for Rehiring:

All of the above plus student evaluations of teaching effectiveness

no. 1 priority

by Dean Carrier