The personnel committee has agreed upon the following general criteria for re-hiring faculty and for recruiting new faculty:

1. Involvement in the Women's Movement

2. Cooperation:

Faculty of the Women's Studies Program must be willing to be responsible to the representative process that has been established by the general membership of the Women's Studies Program.

3. Willingness to work:

Faculty Women must be willing to work cooperatively and collectively with other faculty and staff and students of the Women's Studies Board in the day-to-day operations of the Women's Studies Program.

4. Academic criteria:

In choosing a teacher for a specific course our program is offering, we consider her research or publication in the area of women and her degree of knowledge in the particular field.

5. Criteria for Rehiring:

All of the above plus student evaluations of teaching effectiveness
