- feminism in a New Key: A Key to Organizing.....by Carol Rowell
 In this seven page pamphlet, Carol Rowell analyzes and responds to current trends and issues within the national women's movement. Topics covered are feminist coalitions, radical services, government and foundation funding, and others. The pamphlet cost is 15¢ within the United States and 25¢ to other countries. (I) Published 1974.
- Women of the Convicted Class.....by Rhetta Alexander
 A thirteen page article on the conditions faced by women in prison; the unmet needs of these women, and the organization and activities of the CWSS Sisterhood Chapters inside two California women's prisons. The cost is 75¢ to individuals and $1.00 to institutions. (II) Published 1972.
- Rainbow Snake.....a women's poetry anthology.
 65 pages of excellent poetry and beautiful graphics, Rainbow Snake was published cooperatively by women. A contribution to feminist thought and culture, the idea for the book grew out of a local women's poetry reading.* $2.00 plus 25¢ mailing cost to individuals and $4.00 to institutions. (III) Published 1971.
 *Poets included in the selection range from local artists such as Barbara Miles (now Mor) and Joyce Nower to nationally and internationally known women such as Alta and Anne Sexton.
- CWSS Feminist Bulletin.....
 The monthly Feminist Bulletin is the on-going "news arm" of the CWSS Publications Component. Its style and content reflect CWSS's radical feminist ideology and practice by reporting on the radical services and educational programs sponsored by CWSS, local and national feminist issues, current events and trends in the Movement, and more. The suggested subscription is $3.00 per year. (IV) Published monthly since 1971.
