

Center Office
908 'E' Street
San Diego, CA 92101
(714) 233-8984

CWSS Storefront
908 'E' Street
San Diego, CA 92101
(714) 233-3088

MS-0236- 201.07A.024

Center for Womens Studies & Services

Dear Friend and Supporter of C.W.S.S.,

We are pleased to inform you that you have been nominated by the Collective of the Center for Women's Studies and Services to the C.W.S.S. Advisory Board.

For eleven years the Center has been serving women through its Storefront, its Counseling, Educational, Cultural, and Publications Components, and through its nationally circulated newspaper, The Longest Revolution. Our long-term as well as our immediate and intermediate goals have been shaped, from the beginning, by a determined yet progressive and non-dogmatic feminist vision.

Our vision has been sharpened by years of practical application, and the range of our activities has been steadily expanding. And now, more than ever, we find ourselves ready for, and in need of, the ideas, insights, experience and advice of persons such as yourself. We would be honored to have you on our Advisory Board.

Whether or not you accept the nomination, we hope that you can attend the Advisory Board reception, which will take place at the Center on Thursday, November 20, 1980, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. Our address is 908 "E" Street, San Diego, Calif., 92101. In either case, however, please respond by mailing the enclosed postcard as soon as possible.

Although we hope that you can attend the reception and (in case you accept the nomination) the annual Advisory Board meetings, attendance is not at all mandatory — especially since some members live a considerable distance from San Diego. The bulk of our contact with you will be by mail and by telephone, and only to the extent to which your time allows. Needless to say, however, you have a standing invitation to visit C.W.S.S. at your convenience.

Please give the nomination your earnest consideration. We hope to hear from you shortly.

In Sisterhood,

---

Lisa Cobbs

Sue Kirk

Joyce Lane

---

Laurie Mackenzie

Carol Rowell