

george walker smith is:

one man who has achieved an outstanding record of active community service and leadership.

one man who has the proven confidence of the people—elected and re-elected as your Board of Education member.

one man who has demonstrated the courage and faith to have won his personal battle over childhood poverty in rural Alabama.

one man who can truly represent his district—for 14 years he and his wife have raised their family in the Fourth Supervisorial District.

one man who has taken a step forward for racial equality as the first black elected to public office in San Diego.

one man who has the full respect of his chosen profession—supported by leading ministers of all faiths.

one man who has gained national recognition—the only San Diegan ever chosen as a Director, National School Boards Association.

one man who has earned his reputation for honesty, fairness and concern—who will place morality before politics in county government.
