THE CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTIONS TO PASTOR

Are you willing to take charge of this congregation as their pastor, agreeable to your declaration at accepting their call?

Do you conscientiously believe and declare, as far as you know in your own heart, that, in taking upon you this charge you are influenced by a sincere desire to promote the glory of God, and the good of His church?

Do you solemnly promise that, by the assistance of the grace of God, you will endeavor faithfully to discharge all the duties of a pastor to this congregation; and will be careful to maintain a deportment in respects becoming a minister of the gospel of Christ, agreeably to your ordination engagements?

THE CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTIONS TO THE CONGREGATION:

Do you, the people of this congregation, continue to profess your readiness to receive the Rev. George W. Smith, whom you have called to be your minister?

Do you promise to receive the word of truth from his mouth, with meekness and love, and to submit to him in the due exercise of discipline?

Do you promise to encourage him in his arduous labor and to assist his endeavors for your instruction and spiritual edification?

Do you engage to continue to him, while he is your pastor, that competent worldly maintenance which you have promised; and whatever else you may see needful for the honor of religion and his comfort among you?
