

I am always amazed at how lightly we take for granted God's goodness.

It seems never to dawn upon us that God's faithfulness to us, in the final analysis, may be commensurate of ours to Him.

How often we take His goodness for granted! We want His goodness, but how little of ours we give to him.

God expects our faithfulness. He remembers Jesus in speaking of the last days, told us that if we are found faithful God, the Great Architect will say "... Well done good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of the Lord." And to those found unfaithful "... I depart from you..." then He begins to enumerate the many things His unfaithful servant had said to do.

When life is going bad for us we pray for ourselves and we want the prayers of the whole Church. But what do we do when the crisis disappears. We pretend that we have just enough oil for ourselves. The Causes of Christ go wanting because of our lack of concern & dedication.
