

God, our Lord, you gave us the Christ to be our Saviour. You redeem us from our sins and his power and his Cross. You raise us to life through his death and resurrection. And you give us faith in you. For that light and its living hope that our faith gives us, we thank you. Inspire us true faith and hope, give us the promise of your company always, and guide us to be your Holy People, for the sake of Jesus, our Lord.

God, your Son became our Servant, and you lifted him up. We pray for your servants in your Church, especially strengthen them with the Holy Spirit and cause the light of their witness to enlighten all those around them. Inspire all your people to serve you better and work us mindful of our mission to serve in our Place. Make us bold to witness to you for Christ Jesus. Make us timid and quiet below us should hold our tongue. And guide our words so that those we know and those we love and we ourselves might discover anew the power of G. F., the light of the world.

God of light and peace, enlighten those who suffer with the Swallow hope of your love. Inspire those who care for them with your peace. Heal them according to your will. We pray for those who are cold and needy and for those who are addicted to drugs and other substances, answer our needs with your love and open our minds to what you are doing for us in Jesus Christ, our Lord.

The people in Jesus' day had to make a hard decision! Would they love and be loyal to Jesus even if their families and friends were not?

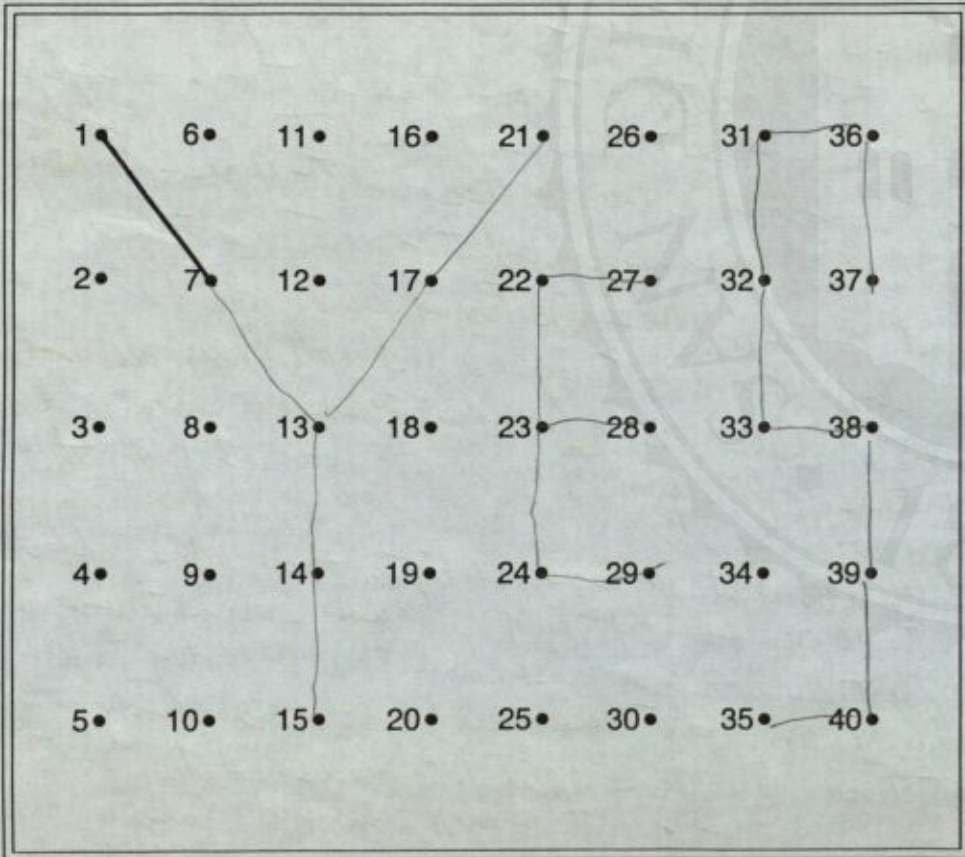

The people in the Bible were good at predicting the weather by sky "signs." Jesus said that there was one sign they had not seen.
