

Call to Worship
Those who were not my people I will call "my people," and her who was not beloved I will call "my beloved;" and in the very place where it was said to them,
"you are not my people," they will be called
"sons of the living God."

Offertory Prayer;

Lord, we cannot buy our way out of trouble. However, we can recognize your blessings and make our gifts a response to your goodness."
