

Money Can't Buy Love

A $20 bill in my hand which can get me several things I want. What do I have here? I have a $20 bill.

What do you think I could buy with it? (Encourage children to respond) - a shirt ticket to the races, doll or stuffed animal etc, I could buy a lot of things with the money.

Of course, money cannot buy me everything. Money cannot buy true friends, true happiness, self-confidence. Money cannot buy me love. Money cannot buy you love. Your family love you just because you are you. Even if you could buy their love, you should not do. You already have it.

Money cannot buy God's love either. God loved us so much, & "that he gave - - -

He loved us so much that he sent Jesus to die for us. Jesus showed us how to love one another. Boys and girls, you can't buy God's love; it's freely given. Money can buy some things, but money can't buy everything: Money can't buy love!

God of never-ending, ever-present love, thank you for loving us with no conditions attached. Help us to share your love with other people.
