

Opening Prayer: We turned aside from the tasks and the duties and the responsibilities which involve us day after day to present ourselves with as much confidence and faith as we can muster, hoping that in your presence and in the quietness of this waiting moment we might find the measure of our deep and inner peace with out which the enterprise of our private lives cannot be fulfilled