

Eternal God: your wisdom is greater than our small minds can contain, and your truth shows up our little learning. To those who study, give curiosity, imagination, and patience enough to wait and work for insight. Help them to doubt with courage, but to hold all their doubts in the larger faith in Jesus Christ.

We thank you, O God, for men and women who teach, administer, and work with our students in school and colleges. Make them eager to explore your world, searching mysteries. Never let them neglect students who are slow to learn. Heap teachers young in mind, resilient, exciting, and devoted to human welfare.

We pray for the parents of these students. Show them that they live under your protection, so that they have not less love, but more;

Friday Catholic Hour

Jan. 22, 1999

D. Deacon Jew

