

We thank Thee, our Father, for life and love, for the mystery and majesty of existence, for the world of beauty which surrounds us and for the miracle of our conscious life by which we behold the wonders of the universe.

We thank Thee for the glimpses of nobility in human life which redeem it from senselessness and measure us that Thine image is in the heart of man. We are grateful for the ties which bind us to each other: for the common toil in industry and marts of trade; for our joint inheritance as citizens of this nation; for traditions and customs hallowed by age through which our passions are ordered and channeled; for the love of beauty and truth and goodness by which we transcend the chasms of race and nations.
For the faith of our fathers and mothers by which we claim kinship with the past and gain strength for the present; for the love of dear ones in our homes and for the enlarging responsibilities and sobering duties of our family life; for the serenity of old people who redound us of fraternalness and for the faith and courage of youth through which we are saved from death.

We are unworthy of the rich inheritance of our common life. We confess that we have profaned the temple of this life by our selfishness and needlessness. We have sought to gain advantage of our brothers and sisters who are bound together with us by many different ties. Have mercy upon us that we may express our gratitude for Thy many mercies by contributions for our sins and that we may prove our repentance by lives dedicated to Thy service.
