Now a great tree has fallen in the forest, and today it leaves an empty place against the sky. This empty place is experienced by Alice, his beloved wife, Charles & David his sons, their wives and children and all of us who knew and loved him, and we know the God who named him, the Shepherd who called him by name, ~~who~~ ^{who} welcomed him home, a sheep of God's fold, a son of E's household, a citizen of God's Kingdom. Morrie has been like a tree that has born good fruit for the blessing and benefit of us all.

Thanks be to God for the life and work and witness of Morrie.

Now, we must repair this chain that has been broken. Let us join with Alice, Charles, David and the rest of the May family in continuing to live

Out the ~~of~~ legacy left us by Morrie - And to God be the glory -
